

Two-Party Insanity

By Gale Joy – Chairman

Constitution Party of Ohio

I'm so tired of hearing every election cycle the same hogwash about voting for the Republicans or Democrats, because the other guys are so bad. As many of you know I'm not a Republican or Democrat; they both left me a long time ago!

There is very little difference between the two major parties. Now, the two Republican candidates for the top offices in Ohio are the same 2 people that removed ALL other parties from the Ohio ballot. Jon Husted allowed the Ohio GOP to go past a deadline to vote for legislation that removed all minor Parties from the ballot. Mike Dewine as Attorney general didn't go after them and a Republican appellate judge upheld the bill saying it was Constitutional which it isn't. Ohio now has one of the worst election laws in Country. This makes me sick!

Voters appall me! The founders and framers would call you pusillanimous; (lacking courage and resolution - marked by contemptible timidity - Webster's) and they would be right. Voters continue to vote for people without a shred of virtue and then complain for the next two years because they won't listen. If voters were serious, they would turn away from them, but they won't. It's like casting pearls before swine! Voters with an ounce of courage would look for other parties and help build them so they would have candidates with integrity and virtue.

The republican and democratic parties are different just like McDonald's and Burger King. They both sell the same things only a different taste and package.
